ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

Sport has changed its identity from a leisure activity to a profession in the contemporary world. It is being pursued as career i.e., professional or academic, it is being treated a commodity, it has taken the shape of goods and services and It is being considered as profitable activity. It has become a centre place of opportunities in different capacities for many. Accordingly, there is a need for involvement of exclusive law to govern its multiple dimensions keeping in mind the peculiarity of interests of all stakeholders. The Centre for Sports and Entertainment Law, Policy & Research JLU School of Jagran Lakecity University, Bhopal and Centre for Alternative Dispute Resolution, Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law, Punjab through this “International Virtual Conference on Regulation of Sports and Entertainment Law” proposes to provide a common platform for legal experts, academicians, researchers, students to bring out, discuss and deliberate on contemporary issues in law relating to sports and entertainment law and possible solutions for resolutions of the same.

ABOUT JLU SCHOOL OF LAW

Ambitions define a man's future whereas education designs his pathway towards it. At JLU School of Law, we are committed to provide world class legal education to our students, moulding them into steadfast legal professionals and equipping them with skills to meet the modern challenges of the legal profession. The students are given exposure to new ideas, international perspectives, and innovative teaching in an encouraging and open academic environment. With a high-quality education bolstered by unique work experiences, our graduating students are well equipped with the skills they need to succeed in a diverse set of fields, in India and abroad. Our primary focus is on fostering global exposure and intensive training by internalizing the core values of law and ethics. Our philosophy is that creative learning in a friendly and healthy academic atmosphere brings out the best in an individual. We have been awarded with the title of the best emerging law school of the country in the past by various renowned knowledge magazines and web portals.

ABOUT CENTRE FOR SPORTS AND ENTERTAINMENT LAW, POLICY & RESEARCH

Sports Law is one of the few areas of law which is still in the developing stages. Earlier, sport was pursued as a hobby but in the present scenario it has become a dedicated profession and is also an area of business. The Centre for Sports and Entertainment Law, Policy & Research at JLU School of Law focuses on research and provides legal assistance with respect to the issues in existing laws and policies in India related to Sports as a profession as well as commercial activity. In the modern world, sports as a profession and Commercial activity generally interacts with various legal disciplines such as Constitutional Law, Law of Contract, Law of Torts, Criminal Law, Taxation Law, Labour Law, Competition Law, and Intellectual Property Rights. The Centre plans to conduct lectures, workshops, conferences on Sports Law and Policy.

ABOUT RAJIV GANDHI NATIONAL UNIVERSITY OF LAW, PUNJAB

Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law (RGNUL), Punjab was established in 2006 by passing the Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law, Punjab Act. After acquiring the approval of the Bar Council of India (BCI), the RGNUL started functioning from Mohindra Kothi, the erstwhile Patiala State. The University got registered with the UGC with a vision to serve the society through transforming legal services and producing the most competent and able administrators, judicial officers, competent lawyers. As of today, the University offers a five-year integrated undergraduate course (B.A.LL.B) along with LL.M, Ph.D. and LL.D. The university shifted to its permanent campus from Mohindra Kothi, Patiala in May 2013. The entire campus is well connected through boasts of lush green cover and well-carpeted roads.

With an objection to undertake advanced research and advanced study in the areas of the fields of law, the university also established Centre for Consumer Protection Law and Advocacy (CCPLA), School of Agricultural Law and Economics (SALE), Bureau of Information for Study Abroad (BISA), RGNUL Institute for Competitive Examination (RICE), Centre for Advanced Study in International Humanitarian Law (CASH), Centre for Advanced Study in Criminal Law (CASCL) and Directorate of Distance Education (DODE), Centre For Alternate Dispute Resolution (CADR).

ABOUT CENTRE FOR ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Centre for Alternative Dispute Resolution (CADR-RGNUL) was established in 2018 to promote students' and researchers' interest in Alternative Dispute Resolution constituting dispute resolution methods like Arbitration, Negotiation, Mediation and Conciliation. It is a research Centre dedicated to research and capacity-building in ADR. The ultimate objective, at CADR, is to strengthen ADR mechanisms in the country by emerging as a platform that enables students and professionals to further their interests in the field.
